VOLUME 8 INDEX

NO. 1, SPRING 1997	1–90
NO. 2, SUMMER 1997	91–192
NO. 3, FALL 1997	193–276
NO. 4, WINTER 1997	277–352

A

Accelerated learning, 194
Achievers, 92–93
Adams, D. E., "Invited Reaction: Reflections on Caputo and Cianni's Research," 219–224
Adult education concepts, 307
Adult learning theory, 66
African Americans. See Blacks
Alge, B., review by, 186–189
Alignment. See Organizational alignment
Alternative medicine, 282
Alternative modeling strategies, 296
Alternative training techniques: alternative modeling strategies, 296; caveat emptor about, 291, 298, 302; claims for, 281–283; definition of, 282; experimental vs. qualitative approaches to, 297–298, 301–303; HRD professionals and, 291, 298, 302; integrative learning, 296; lack of scientific validation for, 291; meditation, 287–289; mental practice, 285–287; Neurolinguistic Programming, 289–291; problems of experimental studies on, 295–297; results and, 301; subliminal self-help products, 283–285
American Leadership Forum (ALF), 350–351
Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, 259–260, 266–267
Analysis of task requirements, 156–157
Articles: "Focusing the International Personnel Performance Appraisal Process," 41–62; "Locus of Control and Incentive in Self-Managing Teams," 247–258; "Predicting Positive Self-Efficacy in Group Problem Solving," 155–169; "Ratee Preferences Concerning Performance Management and Appraisal," 315–333; "Single-Site, Results-Level Evaluation of Quality Awareness Training," 229–245; "Systematic Agreement: A Theory of Organizational Alignment," 23–40; "Training Delivery Problems and Solutions: Identification of Novice Trainer Problems and Expert Trainer Solutions," 305–314
Assertive communication, 119
Assertiveness training, 119, 122, 131
Attributional analysis, 156–157

B

Barrie, J., "Competence, Efficiency, and Organizational Learning," 335–342
Bates, R. A., "Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149; "Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
Blacks: career experiences of, 198; training participation and, 199. See also Job training experiences, of black/white women (study)
Boughton, N. W., Stop Managing, Start Coaching: How Performance Coaching Can Enhance Commitment and Improve Productivity, reviewed, 183–186
Boyle, M. A., "Social Barriers to Successful Reentry into Mainstream Organizational Culture: Perceptions of People with Disabilities," 259–268
Brinkerhoff, R. O., "Invited Reaction: Response to Parsons," 15–21
Burke, L. A., "Final Word: Progress via the 'Process,'" 151–154; "Improving Positive Transfer: A Test of Relapse Prevention Training on Transfer Outcomes," 115–128
Business practice: customer focus and, 344–345; innovation and, 344; new organizing principles for, 344–345; organizational values/ ideals and, 345; software issues and, 344–345; tenets of conventional, 344

C

Caputo, R. K., "Final Word: Response to Adams," 225–228; "The Job Training Experiences of Black and White Women, 1950–1991," 197–217
Career development. See Women, career development of Carvalho, M. B., "Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149; "Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
Change: frequency of organizational, 183; management choice for, 71; in workforce, 197–198; in workplace, 197–198. See also Deep change
Change models, 71, 75
Chaos theory, 8, 27
Cianni, M., "Final Word: Response to Adams," 225–228; "The Job Training Experiences of Black and White Women, 1950–1991," 197–217

Clardy, A., review by, 343–346
Coaching: definition of, 183, 328; HRD practitioners and, 328; literature on, 183, 185; performance management and, 321–322, 327. See also Performance coaching
Cognitive maps, 65
Committee on Techniques for the Enhancement of Human Performance, 284
Common variance, 146
Communication, learning and, 19
Competence: definitions of, 336–337; liberal view of, 337–338; performance improvement and, 338; positive view of, 337
"Competence, Efficiency, and Organizational Learning," 335–342
Competitive advantage: conventional business tenets and, 344; customer service and, 343; globalization and, 343; HRD practices and, 343; organizational assets and, 343; organizational competence and, 187; organizational effectiveness and, 340; organizational principles for, 344–345; resource-based view of, 187–188
Complexity theory, 27
Confirmatory factor analysis, 139, 141, 148. See also Factor analysis
Confucian-based change model, 71, 75
Congruence model, of organizational behavior, 24
Consultants, integrity of, 91–92
Continuous-learning culture, 98
Crosby quality-training program, 232–233
Cross-cultural management, 84–86
Culture: cognitive maps and, 65; definition of, 35, 65; education and, 19; international HRD and, 66, 74; occupational, 74; organizational development and, 71–72. See also Organizational culture
Customer service, 83, 344–345

D

Decision making: criteria for, 92–93; expertise and, 166. See also Problem solving
Deep change: difficulty of, 273; gold panning analogy of, 274; leaders and, 273; mastery-oriented paradigm and, 275; reflection and, 275; vs. slow death, 273–274; work-life balance and, 275
Deep Change: Discovering the Leader Within, reviewed, 273–276
Diplomats, 92–93
Disabled employees, organizational barriers to (study): background, 260; barrier types and, 262; conclusion, 267; employment statistics and, 267; established job methodologies and, 264–265; findings, 262–266; implications, 266–267; interpersonal skill development and, 267; job design and, 266; job placement and, 266; limitations, 267; methodology, 260–262; negative social image and, 262–263; organizational image and, 265–266; participants, 260–261; rehabilitation system constraints and, 264; training and, 266–267
Disney organization, 10
Diversity: cross-cultural management and, 85; international management and, 43; as organizational resource, 345
Dodd, P., review by, 273–276
Dynamic relationship model, of organizations, 33–36

E

Editorial: "HRD Is Not the Research Problem," 1–3; "The Illusion of Knowledge," 277–279; "Reflections on Developing a Code of Integrity for HRD," 91–95; "TADD Short!" 193–196
Education: culture and, 19; popular, 89; praxis and, 88. See also Learning
Employee involvement (EI): implementation of, 249; reasons for, 247; self-managed work groups and, 247
Employees: already-trained, 197; group processes and, 156; HR focus on, 188; workplace learning role of, 87. See also Disabled employees, organizational barriers to (study); Ratee preferences; Ratees
Employment opportunity: race/gender and, 220–221; social components of, 220. See also Women, career development of
Enactive mastery, 156–157
Error variance, 146
Ethics: HRD soul and, 179; international HRD and, 73. See also Values
Evaluation: international HRD and, 70–71. See also Impact evaluation; Training evaluation
Expectancy theory, 248–249, 251
Experience: attributional analysis of, 156–157; problem solving and, 156, 158, 166; self-efficacy and, 156; vicarious, 156. See also Enactive mastery
Exploratory factor analysis, 139–141, 148. See also Factor analysis

F

Factor analysis: applied vs. scientific research and, 147; construct validation and, 133–134; limitations of, 146–147; MES example and, 140; NSQ example and, 140; Persian Gulf example and, 140–141; principal component approach and, 147; purpose of, 147; sample size and, 134, 147–148; types of, 139; variance and, 146

Falkman, S. K., "Training Delivery Problems and Solutions: Identification of Novice Trainer Problems and Expert Trainer Solutions," 305–314
Feature: "Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303; "Final Word: Response to Adams," 225–228; "Invited Reaction: Reflections on Caputo and Cianni's Research," 219–224; "Invited Reaction: Response to Parsons," 15–21; "Invited Reaction: Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 295–299; "The Job Training Experiences of Black and White Women, 1950–1991," 197–217; "Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294; "Values as a Vital Supplement to the Use of Financial Analysis in HRD," 5–13
Feature Articles: "Final Word: Progress via the 'Process,'" 151–154; "Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149; "Improving Positive Transfer: A Test of Relapse Prevention Training on Transfer Outcomes," 115–128; "Invited Reaction: Progress or Relapse?" 129–136; "Invited Reaction: Theory, Research, and Practice," 137–143; "Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
FFB model, of financial analysis, 6
"Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303
"Final Word: Progress via the 'Process,'" 151–154
"Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149
"Final Word: Response to Adams," 225–228
Financial analysis tools: astronomy example and, 12; benefits of, 7, 11–12; bias and, 8; designing new, 11; limitations of, 7–8, 10–11; organizational performance and, 11–12; performance measurement and, 7–8; rational decision making and, 7; sensitivity of, 11; stakeholders and, 7; strategic questions and, 7; unidimensionality of, 7, 10; values and, 9–11
Financial analysis. See HRD financial analysis
Flesher, J., review by, 190–192
"Focusing the International Personnel Performance Appraisal Process," 41–62
Forum: "Competence, Efficiency, and Organizational Learning," 335–342; "In Search of the Soul of HRD," 171–181; "International HRD: What We Know and Don't Know," 63–79; "Social Barriers to Successful Reentry into Mainstream Organizational Culture: Perceptions of People with Disabilities," 259–268

G

Garson, B. E., "Locus of Control and Incentive in Self-Managing Teams," 247–258
Gender: employment opportunity and, 222–221, 223; occupational discrimination and, 198, 214–215; training participation and, 199; women's career development and, 220–221
General systems theory (GST): assumptions of, 30–31; HRD and, 30; process model of organization and, 32–33. See also Systems theory
Gilley, J. W., Stop Managing, Start Coaching: How Performance Coaching Can Enhance Commitment and Improve Productivity, reviewed, 183–186
Glenzer, K., review by, 84–86
Globalization: competition and, 343; cross-cultural management and, 84–86; organizational culture and, 65; quality movement and, 247
Gosselin, A., "Ratee Preferences Concerning Performance Management and Appraisal," 315–333
Gresham, M. T., review by, 269–272
Group problem solving: conditions for, 158; discussion, 162–166; educational level and, 165, 167; employee belief in, 156; expertise and, 160, 163–166; future research and, 167; goal of, 157; group orientation and, 159–160, 166; humanistic management and, 157; inhibiting factors to, 158; instrument, 159–161; model of, 159, 163; number of groups and, 165; personal characteristics and, 160, 166; problem-solving confidence and, 160, 165–166; productivity and, 157; purpose, 158–159; research setting, 159; results, 162; sample, 161; training and, 165
Group processes: creativity and, 166; expertise and, 166; five-stage developmental model and, 269; programs vs., 269; conflict and, 271

H

Hallé, N., "Ratee Preferences Concerning Performance Management and Appraisal," 315–333
Harari, O., Jumping the Curve: Innovation and Strategic Choice in an Age of Transition, reviewed, 343–346
Hardt, P., review by, 81–83
Harris, P. R., Managing Cultural Differences: Leadership Strategies for a New World of Business (4th ed.), reviewed, 84–86
Harvey, M., "Focusing the International Personnel Performance Appraisal Process," 41–62
Higher Standard of Leadership: Lessons from the Life of Gandhi, A, reviewed, 347–352
Holton, E. F. III, "Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149; "Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
HRD financial analysis: applications for, 6; corporate training and, 6; FFB model and, 6; financial worth and, 6; interest in, 5; irrational basis of, 15–16; literature on, 5–6; models of, 5–6; nonadvantages of, 15–16; organizational goals and, 11; ROI model of, 15–17; values and, 8–10

HRD incompetence: eliminating, 194; professional brokering of, 193–194; profiting from 195
"HRD Is Not the Research Problem," 1–3
HRD practitioners: alternative training techniques and, 291, 298, 302; coaching and, 328; ratee preferences and, 328; roles of, 63; women's career development/training and, 213–215, 223–224, 227; workplace learning and, 87
HRD research/theory: organizational alignment and, 24–27; quandary of, 335; reasons no one pays attention to, 278–279; reflective practice and, 26. See also Organizational alignment theory; Theory building
Human capital theory, 198
Human development theory, 92
Human development, 173
Human Resource Champions, reviewed, 186–189
Human resource development (HRD): activities of, 63; dark side to, 174; definition of, 31, 172; disabled employees and, 266–267; energizing vision of, 173; expenditures on, 291; human development and, 173; irresponsible practices of, 193; as learning, 63; mission of, 172; myth and, 171–174; organizational learning perspective and, 335, 340–341; performance coaching and, 185; quality management and, 230; systems theory and, 30–31; tolerance of dumb by, 193; United States– based, 63–64; values of, 171, 174–175. See also HRD financial analysis; HRD practitioners; HRD research/theory; International HRD; Soul, of HRD; Training/ development
Human resource management (HRM): job vs. employee focus in, 188; quality training and, 232; role model for, 187
Human resources (HR): boundary shifts in, 189; as employee champion, 188
Huszco, G., Tools for Team Excellence: Getting Your Team into High Gear and Keeping It There, reviewed, 269–272

I

"Illusion of Knowledge, The," 277–279
Impact evaluation: flawed rationale of, 17–18; reframing and, 20; strategic fallacy of, 18–20; training mission and, 15. See also Training evaluation
Imparato, N., Jumping the Curve: Innovation and Strategic Choice in an Age of Transition, reviewed, 343–346
"Improving Positive Transfer: A Test of Relapse Prevention Training on Transfer Outcomes," 115–128
"In Search of the Soul of HRD," 171–181
Innovation, business practice and, 344
Instruction: competence in, 191–192; definition of, 191; interpersonal skills and, 191; lecture format for, 191–192; principles of, 190; standards for, 191; training skills and, 191
Integrative learning, 296
Integrity: challenges to, 91–92; constructing code of, 93–94; filters for viewing, 92–93
Intergroup conflict, 271
International HRD: change models and, 71; competencies and, 72–73; culture and, 65–66, 74; definitions of, 64; ethics and, 73; HRD role and, 74; literature review of, 66–76; management theory/interventions and, 71–72; organizational development and, 71–76; social learning theory and, 66; systems theory and, 64–65; training design and, 68–69; training needs analysis and, 67–68; training program development/ implementation and, 69–70; training program evaluation and, 70–71; training/ development and, 67–71, 75; United States–based and, 63–64
"International HRD: What We Know and Don't Know," 63–79
International marketplace, 43–44
International personnel performance appraisal: circumstances necessitating, 42–45; complexity of, 42; developmental purpose of, 45; employee diversity and, 43; experience with international marketplace and, 43–44; inadequate data and, 44; need for, 41; organizational structure/differences and, 44; research on, 41–42; time/cost/distance issues and, 44
International personnel performance appraisal process: appraisal purpose and, 47–49; contextual performance appraisal matrix and, 57–58; development of, 45–59; external/ internal environments and, 51–53; indexes of accuracy for, 46; manager role/tasks and, 49–50; model for, 47–48; position characteristics and, 49–51; procedural steps in, 47–48; qualitative/ quantitative assessment criteria and, 56–57; rater/ratee characteristics and, 53–56; rating process characteristics and, 57–59; remedial action program and, 46; ways to use, 47–49
"Invited Reaction: Progress or Relapse?" 129–136
"Invited Reaction: Reflections on Caputo and Cianni's Research," 219–224
"Invited Reaction: Response to Parsons," 15–21
"Invited Reaction: Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 295–299
"Invited Reaction: Theory, Research, and Practice," 137–143

J

Jacobs, R. L., "HRD Is Not the Research Problem," 1–3
Jaworski, J., Synchronicity: The Inner Path of Leadership, reviewed, 347–352

Job characteristics model, 248
Job Descriptive Index (JDI), 141–142, 145
Job-in-General (JIG) Scale, 141
Job performance factors model, 132–133
Job satisfaction: performance incentives and (study), 253–256; personality traits and, 249–250; scales for, 141–142; STS approach and, 248
"Job Training Experiences of Black and White Women, 1950–1991, The," 197–217
Job training experiences, of black/white women (study): descriptive statistics, 202–205; discussion, 212–213; family structure/race and, 200, 207–210, 213–214; higher education participation and, 199–200; historical-sociological perspective and, 219–223, 225; HRD implications of, 213–215, 223–224, 227; income level and, 200, 222, 224–226; labor force participation and, 200; limitations of, 222–225; literature review of, 199–200; measures, 201; method, 200–201; participants, 200–201; results, 202–212; training completion and, 210–211; training duration and, 208–209, 212–213; training-income relationship and, 211–212; training intensity and, 209–210, 212, 220; training likelihood and, 199; training participation and, 205–207, 212–214
Jumping the Curve: Innovation and Strategic Choice in an Age of Transition, reviewed, 343–346

K

Kahnweiler, W., "In Search of the Soul of HRD," 171–181
Keidel, R. W., Seeing Organizational Patterns: A New Theory of Language of Organizational Design, reviewed, 81–83
Knowledge, classical view of, 278

L

Labor, as value, 9
Leader-member exchange (LMX), 329
Leadership: deep change and, 273; defined, 31; Gandhi's example of, 347–349; inspirational genre on, 347, 349; organizational alignment and, 35; propositions about American, 350–351; quantum physics and, 351; soul and, 349; synchronicity and, 349–350
Learning: action, 89–90; behavioral performance and, 340; business values and, 19; communication and, 19; integrative, 296; performance and, 338; performance improvement and, 17–18; problems of experimental studies on, 295–296; training methods and, 296. See also Adult learning theory; Education; Social learning theory; Workplace learning
Learning organization, 343
Learning styles, 75
Learning transfer: factors affecting, 116; problem of, 115–116; training investment and, 95. See also Training transfer
Lewin-based change model, 71, 75
Locus of control (LOC): definition of, 249; individual performance and, 249–250; job satisfaction and, 250–251; organizational behavior and, 250; performance-contingent incentives and, 250–251; performance incentives and (study), 252–257
"Locus of Control and Incentive in Self-Managing Teams," 247–258

M

McLean, G. N., "The Illusion of Knowledge," 277–279
Management, cross-cultural influences on, 84–86. See also Business practices; Quality management
Management development, 45
Management techniques: criticism of, 347; industry, 347; inspirational genre of, 347, 349
Managers: as coaches, 184–185; cross-cultural influences on, 84–86; cross-sector/cultural comparison of, 71–72; defining tasks of, 50; expatriate, 85–86; integrity issues of, 91–92; organizational role of, 184; roles of, 49–50; training participation and, 214. See also International personnel performance appraisal
Managing Cultural Differences: Leadership Strategies for a New World of Business (4th ed.), reviewed, 84–86
Marsick, V. J., "Reflections on Developing a Code of Integrity for HRD," 91–95
Meditation: claims for, 288; concentrative, 287; definition of, 287; experimental assessment of, 288–289; opening-up, 287; organizational interest in, 283; religious origins of, 287–288; scientific support for, 289; Transcendental Meditation, 288
Mental practice: amount of, 287; definition of, 283; effectiveness over time of, 286; novices and, 288–287; organizational interest in, 282; other terms for, 285; performance and, 285–287; physical practice vs., 286; studies on, 285–286
Mentoring, 185
Modeling, 157
Money Ethic Scale (MES), 140
Moran, R. T., Managing Cultural Differences: Leadership Strategies for a New World of Business (4th ed.), reviewed, 84–86
Multinational corporations (MNCs), 45
Murray, B., "Single-Site, Results-Level Evaluation of Quality Awareness Training," 229–245

Myth: HRD and, 171–174; definition of, 171; functional vs. nonfunctional, 171; functions of, 171

N

Nair, K., A Higher Standard of Leadership: Lessons from the Life of Gandhi, reviewed, 347–352
National Institutes of Health (NIH), 282
National Longitudinal Survey of Youth (NLSY), 199
National Research Council, 284, 290
National Training Board, 337
Need Satisfaction Questionnaire (NSQ), 140
Neurolinguistic Programming (NLP): claims for, 289; definition of, 289; lack of scientific validation for, 290–291; organizational usage of, 283; origins of, 289; representational modalities and, 289–290
Newstrom, J. W., "Invited Reaction: Progress or Relapse?" 129–136
Nirenberg, J., reviews by, 347–352
Norms, 36

O

On-the-job training (OJT): career experience and, 200; education and, 198; income level and, 200; performance coaching and, 183–184; women in, 213–214. See also Job training experiences, of black/ white women (study); Training/ development
Organizational alignment: congruence model of, 24; aspects of, 28–29; definition of, 23–24, 27–28; dynamic relationship model of, 33–36; environmental aspect of, 29–30, 35; history of, 24–25; leadership and, 35; measurement of, 37–38; organizational culture/values and, 25, 29, 35; organizational reward systems and, 34–35; organizational strategy and, 24–25; performance and, 29, 31–32, 36; power relationships and, 33; process aspects of, 34; structural aspects of, 28–30; tactics/norms and, 36; theoretical explanations for, 24–25; Total Quality Management and, 25 variables reflecting, 34
Organizational alignment theory: alignment aspects and, 28–30; assumptions of, 30–32; building, 26–27; chaos theory and, 27; complexity theory and, 27; defining alignment and, 27; derivation of, 27; hypotheses of, 36–37
Organizational behavior: locus of control and, 250; organizational effectiveness and, 330–341
Organizational behavior modification model, 98, 138
Organizational culture: definition of, 35; globalization and, 65; international performance appraisal and, 51–52; international subsidiaries and, 44; norms and, 30; organizational alignment and, 25; perceptions and, 65; similarity of, 65; training and, 10; values and, 30, 35. See also Culture
Organizational design, 81–83
Organizational development (OD): coaching and, 185; cross-cultural comparison of, 73–74; culture and, 71–72; as ideal, 173; international HRD and, 71–76
Organizational growth: competitiveness and, 340; measurement of, 339–340; organizational learning and, 340–341; organizational principles for, 344–345; performance/behavioral approach to, 338–341; S-curve model of, 343
Organizational learning: competence and, 336–338; HRD and, 335, 340–341; organizational performance vs., 336; organizational effectiveness, 338–340; perspective, 335–336
Organizational performance: competence and, 336–338; components of, 10; financial analysis tools and, 11–12; organizational effectiveness and, 338–340; organizational learning vs., 336; perspective, 336
Organizational structure, divisions of, 82
Organizations: competitive advantage of, 187–188; core relationships in, 82; dynamic relationship model of, 33–36; external environment and, 31, 35, 53; leadership and, 31, 35; process model of, 32–33; reward systems of, 34–35; triadic issues in, 82
Otte, F. L., "In Search of the Soul of HRD," 171–181

P

Pace, R. W., "Competence, Efficiency, and Organizational Learning," 335–342
Parsons, J. G., "Values as a Vital Supplement to the Use of Financial Analysis in HRD," 5–13
Performance: belief in self and, 156; cause-and-effect approach to, 277–278; chaos theory and, 8; current paradigms for, 8; Disney organizational training and, 10; factors affecting, 132–133; Gilbert's theorems and, 5–6; learning and, 338; locus of control and, 250; mental practice and, 285–287; organizational alignment and, 31–32, 36; organizational goals and, 230; organizational strategy and, 24–25; problem-solving groups and, 155; ROI model of, 17–18; self-efficacy and, 156, 166; systems theory and, 8; training and, 17; values and, 9–10. See also Organizational performance; Performance appraisal; Performance coaching; Performance improvement; Performance measurement; Performance rewards
Performance appraisal: dissatisfaction with, 316; fairness, 316; inadequate data and, 44; indexes of accuracy for, 46–47; ineffectiveness of, 316; new formats for, 315; ratee attitudes and, 315–316; ratee preference studies and, 317; ratee satisfaction and, 316; research-practice gap and, 316; team- vs. individually-based, 317. See also International personnel performance appraisal; Performance measurement

Performance coaching: definition of, 183; HRD and, 185; managers and, 184–185; on-the-job training and, 183–184; organizational development and, 185
Performance-contingent incentives, 250–251. See also Performance rewards
Performance improvement: competence and, 338; learning and, 17–18; questioning, 20; theoretical support for, 23; training and, 15, 18, 95; coaching activities and, 321–322, 327; communicating performance expectations and, 321; process issues, 318, 321–322, 327
Performance measurement: financial analysis tools and, 7–8; Gilbert's theorems for, 5–6; validity/reliability and, 339–340. See also Performance appraisal
Performance rewards: locus of control and, 250–251; productivity and, 249. See also Self-managing teams, performance incentives and (study)
Peterson, L. A., "International HRD: What We Know and Don't Know," 63–79
Powerful Principles of Instruction, reviewed, 190–192
Praxis, 88
"Predicting Po ·ive Self-Efficacy in Group Problem Solvin 35–169
Principal com nt analysis, 147. See also Factor analysis
Problem solving: educational level and, 165, 167; experience/knowledge and, 156, 158, 162–165; expert vs. novice, 157–158, 166; individual issues in, 158
Problem-solving groups: benefits of, 155; collectivist personalities and, 166; employee resistance and, 155–156; organizational performance and, 155. See also Group problem solving
Problem statement, 1–2
Process model, of organizations, 24, 32–33
Productivity: coaching and, 183–186; group problem solving and, 157; performance rewards and, 249; self-managing teams and, 248; as value, 9

Q

Quality: Crosby program and, 232–233; global marketplace and, 247; literature on, 343
Quality awareness training: dollar value of, 243; efficacy of, 230, 241; long-term implications of, 243; quality programs and, 229. See also Quality awareness training, quality production and (study); Quality training
Quality awareness training, quality production and (study): analysis, 235–238; contextual issues and, 232, 241–243; data, 235; discussion, 241–243; facility/subjects and, 233–235; implications, 242–243; limitations, 241–242; manipulation/design and, 232–233; method, 232–238; product quality and, 230–231, 241; purpose, 231–232; research questions, 230–232, 238–241; results, 238–241; training utility and, 231–232, 241, 243
Quality interventions: awareness and, 231; long-term implications of, 243; positive outcomes of, 230–231; product quality and, 231; quality training and, 230–231
Quality management: HRD and, 230, 243; product quality and, 231
Quality programs, 229. See also Quality awareness training
Quality training: contextual issues in, 232, 241–243; Crosby program of, 232–233; long-term implications of, 243; product quality and, 230–231; utility of, 231–232, 241, 243. See also Quality awareness training
Quantum physics, leadership and, 351
Quinn, R. E., Deep Change: Discovering the Leader Within, reviewed, 273–276

R

Race: employment opportunity and, 220, 223; training participation and, 199. See also Blacks
Raffaele, G. C., "Single-Site, Results-Level Evaluation of Quality Awareness Training," 229–245
Ratee preferences: empirical knowledge of, 316–317; importance of, 315–316; neglect of, 315; studies on, 317
Ratee preferences, on performance management/appraisal: appraisal information uses and, 320–321, 327; appraisal source and, 318–319, 324; coaching activities and, 321–322, 327–328; communicating performance expectations and, 321; concerns, 330; criteria format and, 320; data analysis, 323–324; discussion, 328–331; empirical knowledge base on, 316–317; feedback issues and, 318, 324–327; feedback type/content and, 319–320, 326–327; future research directions and, 329–330; HRD practitioners and, 328; individual differences and, 329; leader-member exchange and, 329; measures, 323; method, 322–324; procedure, 322–323; rating frequency and, 319, 324, 329 rating issues and, 317–321; rationale for, 316; research questions and, 317–318; results, 324–328; sample, 322; work planning and, 327

"Ratee Preferences Concerning Performance Management and Appraisal," 315–333
Ratees: neglect of, 315–316; appraisal systems and, 315–316; dissatisfaction of, 316. See also Employees
Rater-ratee issues, 53–56
Rating process, 56–59
Reality, views of, 277–278
"Reflections on Developing a Code of Integrity for HRD," 91–95
Relapse prevention (RP): employee behavior patterns and, 116; goal of, 116; psychology basis of, 116; studies of, 116–117; transfer climate and, 116; transfer outcomes model and, 117–118, 131
Relapse prevention training, transfer outcomes and (study): background, 115–118; critical assessment of, 130–131; discussion, 124–126; experimental conditions, 119–120; follow-up survey, 120–121; future research directions, 125–126, 152–153; hypotheses, 118; limitations, 125–126, 131, 152; meaningful contributions, 130; measures, 120; method, 119–121; research objectives, 151–152; results, 122–124; sample, 119; training program, 119; transfer motivation and, 120, 125; transfer strategies and, 125
Reliability, 339–340
Remedial action program (RAP), for international performance appraisal, 46
Research. See HRD research/theory
Return on investment (ROI), 15. See also ROI model
Reviews: Deep Change: Discovering the Leader Within, 273–276; A Higher Standard of Leadership: Lessons from the Life of Gandhi, 347–352; Human Resource Champions, 186–189; Jumping the Curve: Innovation and Strategic Choice in an Age of Transition, 343–346; Managing Cultural Differences: Leadership Strategies for a New World of Business (4th ed.), 84–86; Powerful Principles of Instruction, 190–192; Seeing Organizational Patterns: A New Theory of Language of Organizational Design, 81–83; Stop Managing, Start Coaching: How Performance Coaching Can Enhance Commitment and Improve Productivity, 183–186; Synchronicity: The Inner Path of Leadership, 347–352; Tools for Team Excellence: Getting Your Team into High Gear and Keeping It There, 269–272; Training Through Dialogue: Promoting Effective Learning and Change with Adults, 87–90
Reward systems, organizational, 34–35. See also Performance rewards
Rightsizing, 247
ROI model: impact evaluation and, 17–20; maintenance training example and, 17–18; questions about, 15, 20; service organization example and, 16–17; success and, 16; training and, 16–20; value assumptions and, 17
Rosenthal, G. T., "Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303; "Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294

S

S-curve model, of organizational growth, 343
Scientific theory/method, 137
Seeing Organizational Patterns: A New Theory of Language of Organizational Design, reviewed, 81–83
"Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294
Self-actualization, 179–180
Self-efficacy: cues influencing, 156–157; definition of, 156; determinants of, 156, 166; detriments to, 156; enactive mastery and, 156–157; modeling and, 157; performance and, 156, 166; as task-specific, 157; training and, 165–167. See also Group problem solving, self-efficacy and (study)
Self-managing teams: criticisms of, 248; employee characteristics and, 249; employee involvement and, 247; expectancy theory and, 248–249, 251; job characteristics model and, 248; locus of control and, 249–251; organizational/individual benefits of, 248; personality traits and, 249; productivity/satisfaction and, 248; psychological effects of, 248; STS approach and, 248
Self-managing teams, performance incentives and (study): discussion, 254–257; instruments, 252; job satisfaction and, 253–256; locus of control and, 252–257; methods, 251–253; participants, 251–252; procedure, 252–253; productivity and, 253; recommendations, 255–257; research questions, 251; results, 253–254
Semler, S. W., "Systematic Agreement: A Theory of Organizational Alignment," 23–40
Seyler, D. L., "Final Word: Reply to Newstrom's and Tang's Reactions," 145–149; "Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
Shared visioning, 11
"Single-Site, Results-Level Evaluation of Quality Awareness Training," 229–245
Skill-enhancement training, 214. See also Training/development
"Social Barriers to Successful Reentry into Mainstream Organizational Culture: Perceptions of People with Disabilities," 259–268
Social learning theory, 66
Sociotechnical system (STS) approach, 248
Soper, B., "Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303; "Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294

Soul: definition of, 173; literature on, 349; of profession, 173–174, 351
Soul, of HRD: ethical issues and, 179; future research on, 180–181; Kahnweiler's theory about, 175–179; nurturing, 179–180; Otte's theory about, 176–177; questions about, 174; scientific vs. qualitative approach to, 180; self-actualization and, 179–180. See also Spirituality
Specific variance, 146
Spirituality: definition of, 174; in workplace, 171–172. See also Soul
Stanwyck, D. J., "Locus of Control and Incentive in Self-Managing Teams," 247–258
Stein, D., review by, 87–90
Stop Managing, Start Coaching: How Performance Coaching Can Enhance Commitment and Improve Productivity, reviewed, 183–186
Strategists, 93
Strom, B. T., review by, 183–186
Subject matter experts (SMEs), 138
Subliminal self-help products: audiotapes, 283–284; basis of, 283; claims for, 283; definition of, 283; expectancy effects of, 284–285; ineffectiveness of, 284; literature review of, 284; memory enhancement and, 284–285; positive testimonials about, 284; reasons for benefits of, 284–285; sales of, 282–283; self-esteem and, 284–285
Swanson, R. A., "TADD Short!" 193–196; "Training Delivery Problems and Solutions: Identification of Novice Trainer Problems and Expert Trainer Solutions," 305–314
Synchronicity, 349–350
Synchronicity: The Inner Path of Leadership, reviewed, 347–352
System: cultural value theory as, 65; defined, 64
"Systematic Agreement: A Theory of Organizational Alignment," 23–40
Systems theory: HRD and, 8, 64–65; system definition and, 64. See also General systems theory (GST)

T

"TADD Short!" 193–196
Tang, T. L.-P., "Invited Reaction: Theory, Research, and Practice," 137–143
Team effectiveness: active reinforcement systems and, 270–271; clear sense of direction and, 270; clear/ enticing responsibilities and, 270; components of, 270–271; constructive external relationships and, 271; constructive interpersonal relationships and, 270; nonhuman factors in, 271; responsible/ efficient operating procedures and, 270; talented members and, 270; task performance and, 271; technology and, 271
Teams: five-stage developmental model and, 269–270; intergroup conflict and, 271; process view of, 269, 271. See also Group problem solving; Self-managing teams
Teamwork, 10–11
Technicians, 92–93
Technology, 271, 343–345
Telegroup, Inc., 283
Theory: basic features of, 28; development of, 138; elements of, 137; good practice and, 27. See also HRD research/theory
Theory application deficit disorder (TADD), 193–195
Theory building: problem statement in, 1; reflective practice and, 26
Time out of labor force, 225–226
Tools for Team Excellence: Getting Your Team into High Gear and Keeping It There, reviewed, 269–272
Total Quality Management (TQM): as management philosophy, 11; organizational alignment and, 25; ratee preferences and, 317
"Toward Construct Validation of a Transfer Climate Instrument," 95–113
Trainers: adult learner needs and, 307; criticism of, 305–306; interpersonal skills of, 191; key skills of, 88; as learning facilitators, 87–88; needed skills of, 306 novice vs. expert, 309; training fads and, 306; training skills of, 191; traits of, 191; workplace learning and, 87. See also Training delivery problems (study)
Training delivery problems (study): data analysis, 310–311; expert solutions and, 312–313; expert trainer selection, 309; expert trainer survey, 309–310; lack of information on, 306, 311; literature review, 306–307; methodology, 307–308; most common, 310–311; novice trainer survey, 308–309; purposes, 306, 311; summary/conclusions, 311
"Training Delivery Problems and Solutions: Identification of Novice Trainer Problems and Expert Trainer Solutions," 305–314
Training/development: adult education concepts and, 307; adult learner needs and, 307; costs of, 95, 115; criticism of, 305–306; culture and, 19; demographic considerations and, 214; disabled employees and, 266–267; employee role in, 87; equity in, 214; fads in, 281, 305; family status issues and, 214; financial impact of, 15–16; growth of, 306; impact evaluation and, 15; instructional approach variables and, 307; instructional principles of, 190; instructor-led, 305; instrumental value and, 17; international HRD and, 67–71, 75; large firms and, 223, 226; learner's voice and, 87–88; learning styles and, 75; learning transfer and, 306; lecture format for, 191–192; managers and, 214; organizational culture and, 10; organizational goals/strategy and, 230; performance improvement and, 15, 17–18, 95, 115, 305; popular education and,

89–90; ROI model of, 16–20; self-efficacy and, 165–167; skill enhancement and, 214; skills for, 191; technological advances and, 305; work opportunities and, 214–215. See also Alternative training techniques; Human resource development (HRD); Impact evaluation; Job training experiences, of black/white women (study); On-the-job training; Performance coaching; Quality awareness training; Relapse prevention (RP) training; Training climate; Training delivery problems (study); Training transfer
Training evaluation: levels of, 230; questions about, 20. See also Impact evaluation
Training impact, 17. See also Impact evaluation
Training outcomes: behavior, 301; categories of, 301; learning, 301; reactions, 301; results, 301
Training Through Dialogue: Promoting Effective Learning and Change with Adults, reviewed, 87–90
Training transfer: ability and, 117; behavioral change and, 118; definition of, 17, 96, 115; design factor and, 116; factors affecting, 96, 116, 138–139; group resistance and, 110; knowledge retention and, 117; motivation and, 117; negative, 116; organization factor and, 116, 139; positive, 115; problem of, 115–116; relapse prevention model and, 116; research on, 116; trainees and, 116; training costs and, 95, 115; strategies, 117; work environment and, 96; zero, 116. See also Relapse prevention training, transfer outcomes and (study); Transfer climate
Training transfer outcomes model, 117–118, 131
Transcendental Meditation (TM), 288
Transfer. See Learning transfer; Training transfer
Transfer climate: consequences and, 99; continuous-learning culture and, 98–100; definition of, 96–97, 132–133; importance of measuring, 97; individual components of, 97–98; job performance and, 133; opportunity to perform and, 100; organizational behavior modification model and, 98, 138; organizational components of, 98; as perceptual medium, 97; relapse prevention and, 116; research base on, 97–100, 137–139; resistance and, 110; self-control and, 110; sense of imperative and, 97–98; situational cues and, 99; training transfer and, 96; transfer design and, 110–111; use as variable of, 97–98; work environment and, 97–98; workplace cues and, 98. See also Training transfer; Transfer climate construct validation (study); Transfer climate instrument (study); Transfer constructs
Transfer climate construct validation (study): content validity and, 111; critical analysis of, 134–135, 139–140, 142; defining transfer climate and, 133; factor analysis and, 133–134, 139–142, 146–148; factor instability and, 148; future research directions and, 111–112; job performance factors and, 132; methodological issues and, 146–148; sample size and, 147–148; self-control items and, 110; theoretical/practical issues and, 145–146; transfer climate constructs and, 110–111; transfer design and, 110–111
Transfer climate constructs: continuous-learning culture framework and, 98–100; definitions of, 97–98; opportunity to perform and, 100; opportunity to use and, 110; organizational behavior modification framework and, 98; peer support and, 110; personal outcomes and, 110–111; research on, 97–100; resistance and, 110–111, 139; supervisor support/sanctions and, 110, 139
Transfer climate instrument (study): analysis, 101–102; conclusions, 111–112; discussion, 104–111; measures, 101; method, 100–103; research background, 97–100; research questions, 97, 102–104; resistance scale and, 110; results, 102–104; sample, 100
Transfer climate scales, 96–97, 138, 141–142
Transfer design, 110–111
Transformative change. See Deep change
Triadic model, of organizations, 81–83

U

Ulrich, D., Human Resource Champions, reviewed, 186–189
USA Global Link, 283

V

Validity, 339–340
Value-added customer service, 247
Value systems, 9
Values: corporate culture and, 9; financial analysis and, 9–10; of HRD, 171, 174–175; importance of, 9; individual vs. general, 9; moral character and, 9; organizational culture and, 30, 35; quantification of, 10; teamwork and, 10; Western work and, 9; worth and, 9. See also Ethics; Integrity
"Values as a Vital Supplement to the Use of Financial Analysis in HRD," 5–13
Vella, J., Training Through Dialogue: Promoting Effective Learning and Change with Adults, reviewed, 87–90
Verbal persuasion, 156
Vicarious experience, 156;

Von Bergen, C. W., "Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303; "Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294

W

Watkins, K. E., "Invited Reaction: Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 295–299
Werner, J. M., "Ratee Preferences Concerning Performance Management and Appraisal," 315–333
Wilkinson, L. V., "Final Word: A Rejoinder," 301–303; "Selected Alternative Training Techniques in HRD," 281–294
Wolf, K. N., "Predicting Positive Self-Efficacy in Group Problem Solving," 155–169
Women: career experiences of, 198; education-employment relationship and, 198; historical-sociological perspective of workplace and, 219–223; occupational segregation of, 198, 214–215; in on-the-job training, 213–214; standard of living and, 198; training/development of, 214; in workforce; 198, 213. See also Job training experiences, of black/white women (study)
Women, career development of: barriers to, 221; gender and, 220–221; historical-sociological perspective on, 219–223; hostile corporate environment for, 222; marriage/childbearing and, 221, 225; poverty and, 221; race and, 221, 223; self-esteem and, 222–223, 226; time out of labor force and, 225–226; training ROI and, 223, 226. See also Job training experiences, of black/white women (study)
Work: balance of life with, 275; environment, 97–98; spiritual journey of, 171
Workforce: change in, 197–198; women in, 198, 213
Workplace: change in, 197–198; historical-sociological perspective of women in, 219–223; spirituality in, 171–172
Workplace cues, 98
Workplace learning, 87
Worthy performance, 6

Y

Yelon, S. L., Powerful Principles of Instruction, reviewed, 190–192